

Roles and Responsibilities Draft

Created on 4/7/2019

Updated on 5/11/2019

Roles and Responsibilities

Kirsten Wright and Eric Oveson have entered into a temporary partnership for the purpose of making a short film from the “Alcoholism and Addiction” screenplay wga# 1996974 written by Kirsten Wright. The agreement to make the film was reached on the Carnegie Screenwriters Facebook page on April 1, 2019.

This document will serve to identify the roles and responsibilities of each person participating in creating the final film.

Producer(s)

Eric Oveson as the person designated to shepherd the film through the production process, Eric is a producer.

Kirsten Wright - as the creator of the story and the person to begin gathering a production team, Kirsten is a producer.

Director, Editor, and Casting Director

Eric Oveson is responsible for these three roles.

Writer(s)

Kirsten Wright – Kirsten is writing the script. Any notes given by other producers, the director, or others, will be incorporated into her original. If there are substantial story changes, additional writing credits will be given as determined by Kirsten and Eric.

Crew