

Kirsten Wright and Eric Oveson are entering a temporary partnership for the purpose of making a short film from the "Alcoholism and Addiction" screenplay wga# 1996974 written by Kirsten Wright. The agreement to make the film was reached on the Carnegie Screenwriters Facebook page on April 1, 2019.

This form will serve as the non-disclosure agreement. This document is intended to formalize a "common sense" process to share information created to make and profit from the short film based on the screenplay.

The screenplay, including its current and new titles, plans for revising, filming, marketing, and distributing, make up the "confidential information". Both parties acknowledge that the Confidential Information to be disclosed hereunder is of a unique and valuable character, and that the unauthorized dissemination of the Confidential Information would diminish the value of such information.

From time to time, the Disclosing Party may disclose Confidential Information to the Receiving Party. The Receiving Party will: (a) limit disclosure of any Confidential Information to its directors, officers, employees, agents or representatives (collectively "Representatives") who have a need to know such Confidential Information in connection with the current or contemplated business relationship between the parties to which this Agreement relates, and only for that purpose; (b) advise its Representatives of the proprietary nature of the Confidential Information and of the obligations set forth in this Agreement, require such Representatives to be bound by written confidentiality restrictions no less stringent than those contained herein, and assume full liability for acts or omissions by its Representatives that are inconsistent with its obligations under this Agreement; (c) keep all Confidential Information strictly confidential by using a reasonable degree of care, but not less than the degree of care used by it in safeguarding its own confidential information; and (d) not disclose any Confidential Information received by it to any third parties (except as otherwise provided for herein).

The Receiving Party agrees to use the Confidential Information solely in connection with the current or contemplated business relationship between the parties and not for any purpose other than as authorized by this Agreement without the prior written consent of an authorized representative of the Disclosing Party. No other right or license, whether expressed or implied, in the Confidential Information is granted to the Receiving Party hereunder. Title to the Confidential Information will remain solely in the Disclosing Party. All use of Confidential Information by the Receiving Party shall be for the benefit of the Disclosing Party and any modifications and improvements thereof by the Receiving Party shall be the sole property of the Disclosing Party.

If and when the partnership ends, Eric Oveson agrees to destroy any of the foregoing embodying Confidential Information and certify in writing that it has been done. He will notify Kirsten immediately upon discovery of, or suspicion of, (1) any unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information by him (or his Representatives); or (2) any actions inconsistent with his obligations under this Agreement.
